Independent Lens A Once and Future Peace

LOCAL HIGHLIGHT

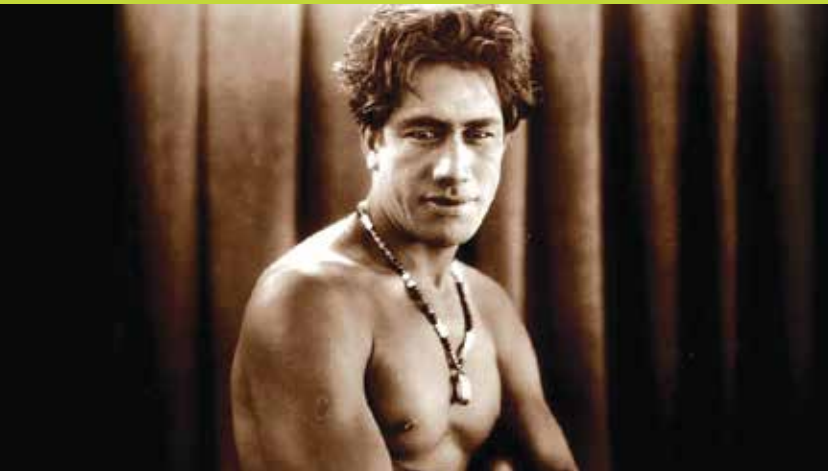

MON May 23 | 10p

In Seattle, Washington, the county government collaborates with the community to pilot a paradigm-shifting restorative justice program founded on the principles of the Indigenous model – that accountability is achieved not through punishment, but by understanding the harm done and reintegrating the offender back into the community. The program's goals are both systemic and personal – keeping youths out of prison and reforming the justice system.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

Flood in the Desert TUE May 3 | 9p

This documentary recounts the dramatic story of the March 1928 St. Francis Dam collapse and its aftermath, the second deadliest disaster in California history. The resulting flood killed more than 400 people, destroyed millions of dollars of property and washed away the reputation of one of the most celebrated men in Southern California, William Mulholland.

A self-taught engineer, Mulholland had ensured Los Angeles' remarkable growth by building a cement aqueduct that piped water from the Owens Valley across the Mojave Desert and into the arid city, 233 miles away. But the bursting of his St. Francis Dam was a colossal failure.

FRIDAYS May 13 & May 20 | 9p

On May 13, Great Performances premieres "Anything Goes." This 2021 London production of Cole Porter's classic musical is led by Sutton Foster, who reprises her Tony-winning role as Reno Sweeney. With a score including timeless favorites such as "I Get A Kick Out of You," "You're the Top" and "Anything Goes," the musical tells the story of two unlikely couples who veer off course aboard the S.S. American to find true love.

Then, on May 20, don't miss "Merry Wives." This Shakespearean comedy from the Public Theater's Shakespeare in the Park is set in South Harlem, where immigrants of the West African diaspora are living side by side with their African American neighbors. This farce tells the story of the charlatan Falstaff and the wily wives who outwit him in a celebration of Black joy, laughter and vitality.
