HIT THE ROAD THIS SUMMER WITH KCTS 9!

TUE Jul 5 | Beginning at 9p

Take a summer road trip with two new travel series beginning Tuesday, July 5, at 9:00 p.m. First, hit the trail with America Outdoors with Baratunde Thurston. This six-part series is hosted by New York Times bestselling author and outdoor enthusiast Baratunde Thurston. The series follows him on an adventure-filled journey to explore the diverse array of regions across the U.S. and how those landscapes shape the way Americans work, play and interact with the outdoors. From wilderness pilots flying “below the rim” in Idaho to coal miners turned beekeepers in Appalachia to Black surfers catching waves in Los Angeles, Thurston introduces viewers to a vivid cast of characters.

Then, at 10:00 p.m., buckle up for The Great Muslim American Road Trip. Follow a millennial Muslim American couple on a cross-country journey along historic Route 66. As they meet new friends and explore more than a dozen stops, Mona and Sebastian weave a colorful story about what it means to be Muslim in America today.

This observational documentary unfolds during February and March 2020 at the height of the pandemic in the city of Wuhan, where the coronavirus began. With unprecedented access at the peak of the pandemic lockdown, “Wuhan Wuhan” goes beyond the statistics and salacious headlines and puts a human experience into the early days of the mysterious virus as Chinese citizens and frontline health care workers grappled with an invisible, deadly killer.

Three communities intersect, sharing histories of forced removal – Japanese Americans who were incarcerated at the Manzanar WWII concentration camp, Native Americans who were forced from these lands and ranchers turned environmentalists, who were bought out by the L.A. Department of Water and Power. How do they come together in the present moment to defend their land and water from Los Angeles?

In 2007, when American aluminum giant ALCOA announced it was exploring plans to build a plant in Maniitsoq, Greenland, the venture was seen as the means of creating jobs and securing independence from Denmark. Archive footage of the countrywide celebrations opens “Winter’s Yearning,” but the inevitable delays result in the small fishing community being on standby for years. In order to get a better understanding of what life is like in Maniitsoq, the narrative is divided among three individuals: a young woman working in the factory, a social worker and the town’s aluminum coordinator.
