Hazing

SEASON PREMIERE

MON Sep 12 | 10p

Explore the controversial practice of hazing and why it continues to be seen as a meaningful and legitimate rite of passage despite mounting lawsuits, suspensions, increased media coverage, serious injuries, arrests and even tragic deaths. The documentary features men and women from across the country who have participated in or been victims of hazing in colleges, the armed services and other professions.

Lion: The Rise and Fall of the Marsh Pride

WED Sep 14 | 9p

For 30 years, camera operators in Kenya have followed one incredible pride of lions. The fates and fortunes of this family have been broadcast worldwide and touched the lives of millions. Now, for the first time, the story of the lioness at the heart of this dynasty is being told. This groundbreaking film introduces a new form of natural history storytelling.

The U.S. and the Holocaust: A Film by Ken Burns, Lynn Novick and Sarah Botstein

SERIES PREMIERE

SUN Sep 18 | 8p

 Marathon Opportunity

This three-part series tells the story of how the American people grappled with one of the greatest humanitarian crises of the 20th century, and how this struggle tested the ideals of their democracy. By examining events leading up to and during the Holocaust with fresh eyes, this film dispels the competing myths that Americans either were ignorant of what was happening to Jews in Europe, or that they merely looked on with callous indifference. The truth is much more nuanced and complicated, and the challenges that the American people confronted raise questions that remain essential to American society today.

Two new documentaries

POV

SUNDAYS Sep 4 & 11 | 12a

"Faya Dayi," airing September 4, is a hypnotic immersion in the world of Harar, Ethiopia, a place where one commodity – khat, a euphoria-inducing plant – holds sway over the rituals and rhythms of everyday life. "Faya Dayi" captures intimate moments in the lives of everyone from the harvesters of the crop to people lost in its narcotic haze to a desperate but determined younger generation searching for an escape from political strife.

Then, on September 11, don't miss "Love & Stuff." Seven months after helping her terminally ill mother die in in-home hospice, filmmaker Judith Helfand becomes a "new old" single mother at 50. Overnight, she's pushed to deal with her "stuff:" 63 boxes of her parents' heirlooms overwhelming her office-turned-future baby's room.

Indigenous Creatives

FRIDAYS | 8:50p

Indigenous Creatives spotlights artists and culture bearers from Turtle Island and Pasifika, across diverse creative disciplines. Each of the creatives featured share common threads through both the personal and cultural breadth, depth and meaning of Indigenous storytelling and the interconnectivity across regions. They highlight the opportunities storytelling brings to efforts in revitalization and reclamation of Indigenous knowledge, language, culture and identity, and the ability to share these stories more broadly to the world.

FRIDAYS Sep 16 & 23 | 9p

"Black Lucy and The Bard," airing September 16, reframes the mysterious love life of literary legend William Shakespeare through the perspective of the illustrious "Dark Lady" for whom many of his famed sonnets were written. Based on the book by Nashville poet Caroline Randall Williams, this contemporary Nashville Ballet production explores themes of love, otherness, equality and beauty.

Then, on September 23, "Intimate Apparel" tells the story of Esther, an unmarried and increasingly lonely African American woman in 1905, who makes her living sewing beautiful corsets and ladies' undergarments. Although she shares a warm affection with the Orthodox Jewish man who sells her fabrics, any possibility of a romantic relationship between them is taboo.

Chief: The Story of Bill Feehan

TUE Sep 13 | 10:30p

More than 20 years after the 9/11 terrorist attacks, the legacy of the New York Fire Department First Deputy Fire Commissioner William M.
