MONDAYS | 10p

POV is television’s longest-running showcase for independent nonfiction films.

Hummingbirds | JUL 1

In this poetic self-portrait, directors Estefanía “Beba” Contreras and Silvia Del Carmen Castaños capture the joys and struggles of coming of age on the Texas-Mexico border. Against the backdrop of oppressive legislation, the pair rebel through art and adventure.

Is There Anybody Out There? | JUL 8

While navigating daily discrimination, Ella Bee Glendining, a filmmaker who inhabits and loves her unusual body, searches the world for another person like her, and explores what it takes to love oneself fiercely despite the pervasiveness of ableism.

Against the Tide | JUL 29

Winner of Sundance’s 2023 Vérité Filmmaking Prize, this captivating documentary follows the lives of two Indigenous fishermen from India’s Koli caste. Best friends Rakesh and Ganesh face challenges that strain their bond. Sarvnik Kaur’s intimate film captures the clash of tradition and progress threatening an ancient way of life.

Breaking Down Barriers
SAT JUL 6 | 7p

Representation and diverse perspectives have long been missing from conversations about nature. Alison Mariella Désir explores the Pacific Northwest with change-makers reclaiming outdoor spaces and creating opportunities for BIPOC communities to find joy, healing and inclusion in nature’s landscapes across the region. Désir spotlights efforts to make the outdoors accessible for all.

The Washington State Historical Society is digitizing 60,000 images by renowned photographer Asahel Curtis, whose work from the 1890s to 1940s captured the Pacific Northwest’s transformation. Curtis documented logging, railroads and growth, advocating for industry while also fighting to preserve wilderness areas such as Mount Rainier. His vast archive includes news photos, landscapes and portraits across all walks of life. The digitization reveals fascinating stories behind striking images capturing a hotel illuminated for Teddy Roosevelt’s 1903 visit, a school’s birdhouse curriculum and more. Narrated by Knute Berger of Mossback’s Northwest.

Jesse Owens: American Experience
TUE JUL 16 | 8p
The 22-year-old son of a sharecropper, Jesse Owens triumphed over adversity to become a hero and world champion at the 1936 Berlin Olympics.

Olympic Pride, American Prejudice
TUE JUL 16 | 9p
Follow the overlooked story of 17 Black American athletes who competed alongside Jesse Owens at the 1936 Berlin Olympics. Despite facing racial discrimination at home, these 16 men and two women chose to represent the United States on the world stage in Nazi Germany. The film explores their experiences before, during and after the Games, highlighting their resilience, courage and determination in the face of adversity.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE
The Boys of ’36
TUE JUL 9 | 9p
Nine working-class young men from the University of Washington overcame tremendous hardships to capture the gold medal in rowing at the 1936 Berlin Olympics. “The Boys of ’36” recounts their unexpected victory against elite Ivy League and German teams—a victory that gave hope to a nation struggling through the Great Depression.
